Peter Wileman VPROI

"The subject of my next painting often comes to me when I am close to water, feeling at one with nature and the elements."

Peter's powerful oil paintings are characterised by expressive, painterly techniques and demonstrate an atmospheric impact that few contemporary artists can hope to rival. His artistic achievements have been recognised with various accolades including the Frank Herring award at the Mall Galleries in London and the Cornellsen Prize for Outstanding Work. As one of the most illustrious landscape painters on the contemporary scene he exhibits regularly at a number of prestigious art venues including the Royal Society of Marine Artists, the New England Art Club and the Royal Institute of Oil Painters of which he is now Vice President.

'Sunrise, Sunset' presents water in its many natural guises as a living mirror of the skies. Seas, rivers and lagoons reflect blazing sunsets and glorious cloudscapes in a dazzling array of purples and golds, demonstrating why Peter Wileman is internationally acknowledged for both his creative gift and his technical excellence.
